FROM THE PRESIDENT...

Happy Days, Nipomo Newcomers and Friends!

Looks like everyone is enjoying having NNSC activities and events back in full swing. I know I am.

The weather is letting us get outside more and social gatherings are happening.

Remember...

- Sunday Brunch at the Radisson is back!
June 26th! Save the Date... (see flyer)
- Bingo Bash is coming on Saturday, July 16th!

Mark your calendars and look for more events coming up...

Looking forward to seeing everyone soon,

~ Sally Hill, NNSC President

TGIF 2 met at Sally & Ryan Hill's home on April 22nd (Not pictured-Sally Hill)

Lunch Bunch 2 - Our first get-together at Happy's on April 7th. We meet on the first Thursday of each month. For Cinco de Mayo, we will meet in Nipomo at Las Cazuleas. Mexican food... who would have thought?!

PCPA HOSPITALITY NEEDED

Do You Support the Arts?

PCPA Pacific Conservatory Theater seeks low-cost housing for the summer for college-age interns and guest artists. The summer season usual starts in late May and runs through mid-August. Fall season runs from mid-August through mid-May, with a 2 week break for the holidays.

Requirements include a bedroom with bed provided, a private or shared bathroom, and access to onsite kitchen and laundry facilities. $600 to $1,200 monthly rent.

PCPA's Conservatory provides remarkable year-round training for emerging theatre artists in all areas of theatre and production. You can show your support by offering these students affordable housing.

GROUP ACTIVITIES...

After a day viewing the elephant seals and a 4.5-mile bluffs hike, the hiking group enjoyed lunch at Moonstone Beach in Cambria on April 11th.

GG1 enjoyed a tour of the 'Garden of the Seven Sisters,' in SLO on April 14. Lunch followed at Nova.

The Women's Hiking Group at the Pismo Preserve on April 25th. What a view!

The GG2 visited the new RONs Nursery in Halcyon on April 28th. Ron demonstrated how to plant a succulent dish with a few of his MANY succulents from his nursery. He supports many local potters, showing us beautiful examples from several. Afterwards, the group ate lunch in the Atrium with food from The Market Place at Trilogy. An enjoyable day for all!

San Luis Obispo Museum of Art

Thursday, May 12th

3:30 PM

Admission is free - Donations Welcomed
Followed by Drinks & Appetizers

The San Luis Obispo Museum of Art is thrilled to present Collision: an exhibition of works by Azerbaijani artist Faig Ahmed. His art reimagines ancient crafts and creates new visual boundaries by deconstructing traditions and stereotypes. He is well known, and his work is represented in museums around the world.

Our very own Nipomo Newcomer's member, Sue Sacks, will lead the docent tour of this creative and interesting exhibit. Followed by drinks and appetizers at the Hotel SLO High Bar. The High Bar is an open bar with 360° views of Downtown SLO and the surrounding mountains. Plus, the food is wonderful!

Meet at the Museum at 3:30 PM

1010 Broad Street • San Luis Obispo

Following the Tour - Drinks & Appetizers at the High Bar

877 Palm Street • San Luis Obispo

Parking at the garage on Palm is an easy walk to the museum and across from Hotel SLO.

Please RSVP to Sue Sacks at sue1sacks@gmail.com by Tuesday May 10th
