FROM THE PRESIDENT

Hello to all Nipomo Newcomers & Social Club members...

April brought us spring weather and more opportunities to get outside and enjoy our beautiful central coast.

Our outing to the historic Dana Adobe was very interesting and educational not only about the Dana family, but the day to day lives of people in the area, as well as the social aspects of living on the central coast in that era. If you've never been, I'd recommend taking a tour and enjoy the scenic location! (see page 2)

Also, remember the upcoming Kentucky Derby event promises to be quite a fun day with lots of chances to participate in betting, hat contests, surprises, etc. Get your tickets! Don't miss out.

See you soon... Sally Hill

LEARN ABOUT... BOOK GROUP 1

The NNSC Book Club 1 has been meeting since 2000, even during most of the pandemic when we met outside on patios! Since we meet in each other's homes, our group size is about ten members. Each member signs up for a month, presents information about the author, and leads the discussion on the book. We have had some very interesting discussions, often not even about the book. We try and keep the book easy to obtain, at a reasonable length and interesting to the members. I would encourage members to start a book group if other groups are full, as it is very rewarding for all involved.

~Diane Jankowski

DANA ADOBE TOUR

Thursday, April 20, 2023

A group of Nipomo Newcomer history buffs toured the restored Dana Adobe and heard what life was like living here in the 1800s. After the tours, the group sat in the shade and enjoyed their sack lunches along with bottles of wine provided by the NNSC Board. A windy but fun day!

We had a great turnout for this All-Newcomers event! Thank you, Vicky Sady, for organizing this memorable outing.

GROUP ACTIVITIES

A beautiful walk along North Silver Shoals at Shell Beach on a perfect sunny day. (3/27/23, left & above)

Bunco 2 - Happy winners! (4/10/23, above)

Lunch Bunch 2 enjoyed Gina's in the A.G. Village. (4/3/23, above)

The GGs experienced a relaxing 'sip & spa' day at the beautiful Hacienda Felice in Arroyo Grande. (above, 4/13/23)
We were treated to a guided tour of the gardens and vacation rooms prior to the spa experience. Art was everywhere!

ACTIVITY CORNER...

Several of our new and returning members have expressed interest in groups that are currently full, with several people on waiting lists. We are considering expanding and adding some new groups.

PROPOSED TO EXPAND

Hand & Foot – We presently have 2 groups that meet during the day once a month. Members alternate hosting at their homes.

Mexican Train – The current group meets once a month during the day in the Community Room.

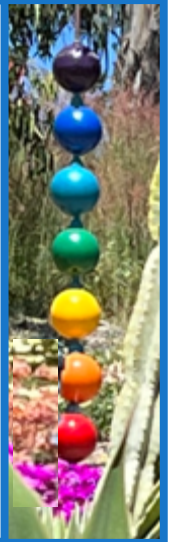

Lunch Bunch – We have two large groups with wait lists at the present time. Each month, a member selects the restaurant at which the group will dine and makes the reservations. The responsibility for this rotates to another member for the next month.

PROPOSED NEW ACTIVITIES

Co-ed Mexican Train – There has been some interest in forming a Co-ed Mexican Train Group. This would not be exclusively a couples group, but would also include singles.

Theatre Group – This group would attend theatrical performances in our area; Clark Center, PCPA, SLO Rep, Melodrama, etc.

If you're interested in joining or chairing any of these groups, please contact Cici Wynn, ciciwynn@gmail.com or (805) 458-5942.
